Agenda/Discussion Items:

1. Party Boat Fundraiser: Elizabeth Swason gave an update on the event. It will be sponsored by our Rotary Club of Plymouth-Foothills Foundation. Monies earned will go to the high school band program and to a club sponsored scholarship program. Elizabeth suggested that the scholarships go to students, who qualify, from this end of the county.
2. Rotarians At Work: Rick Sanders volunteered to take the lead for Rotarians At Work Day to work on a project in Plymouth.
3. Party Boat Fundraiser: Elizabeth
4. Plymouth Flea Market Breakfast: Mary Ann McCamant suggested that we start breakfast for the vendors at 6:30 am, and that announcement flyers should be handed out as the vendors check in. The consensus was in approval of this plan.
5. Easter Egg Hunt: Dan Slater suggested that since we are co-sponsors with the Amador Flower Farm, that we should share some of the financial expenses. No action was taken. Dan will ask Jeanne Deaver to speak to the board.
6. Amador City Street Dances: Mary Ann McCamant advised that do to bridge repair in Amador City the street will be closed. The city will have street dances for 10 weeks (from 6 pm to 9 pm), commencing on June 22, except for the week of county fair. The events will include music, food and beverages. Mary Ann suggested that the club or some of the members might help. More next month.
