Program for September 6, 2011

Apparantly there is no speaker for this weeks meeting – so we will be winging it and enjoying each others company and conversation a little longer than usual. Try sitting next to someone you usually don't – and get to know them a little better.

My thought for the week:
CHOOSE BEING KIND OVER BEING RIGHT

A little sneak peak at next weeks speaker

Sharon Jenkins from INDIAN GRINDING ROCK State Historic Park – 12 miles east of Jackson. Several times a year, ceremonies are held in the hun'ge (roundhouse) by local Native Americans. One of those ceremonies "Big Time" brings together Indian families on the weekend following the 4th Friday in September for the annual acorn gathering. Dancing, hand games, singing, and storytelling are traditional at this event. Come and learn about this local park and its' interesting history and events, trails and wildlife.

Get ready to say "so long" to those lazy crazy hazy days of summer

Just enough to stir your curiosity - more about Indian Grinding Rock next week.

Calendar of Events

Sept. 8 Plymouth Community Market
This week the event will feature wines by Bray, food by Clark's Corner, music by Kevin Fritson, information booths, and produce and products by local folks.

This and That

The Rotary theme for September is
NEW GENERATIONS

Is it the TRUTH?
Is it FAIR to all concerned?
Will it build GOODWILL and better FRIENDSHIPS?
Is it BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

The Truth is -
This was the best I could do this time.
